

	SCHEDULE OF AMENDMENTS 2021 Articles of Association – Australian Lace Guild	Amendments to the Articles of Association (in the version approved by ASIC dated 29 April 1996)
Clause	Previous Clause	Current Clause	Why are made the change
8.2	Directors Qualification In order to be elected as Directors, the Directors shall be Members of the Company. Unless the Company in general meeting otherwise determines, a majority of the Directors must be resident in the State or Territory in which the Office is located (as set out in Article 18).	Directors Qualification In order to be elected as Directors, the Directors shall be Members of the Company. The Director who is elected President, and at least one other Director holding the office of either Vice President, Treasurer or Secretary, must reside in the same state of Australia. Directors may otherwise be drawn from the membership of any state of Australia.	To allow our committee to be made up of members from any State so that no one state has to bear the burden of forming two full committees.  Having the president and one other in the same state is to facilitate things like signing documents and cheques
8.4	Duration of Appointment by Directors Any Director appointed pursuant to Article 8.3 holds office only until the next following annual general meeting of the Company and is eligible for re-election.	Duration of Appointment by Directors Any Director appointed pursuant to Article 8.3 holds office only until the next following annual general meeting of the Company and is eligible for re-election subject to this clause. (a) A Director is entitled to be appointed as a Director for a maximum term of five consecutive years, if re-elected at each annual general meeting ( Maximum Term ); (b) After a Director has served the Maximum Term, they must not stand for re-election as a Director for a period of at least 12 months from the date they last ceased to be a Director ( Director’s Break ); (c) Notwithstanding the terms above, if the Company is unable to appoint the minimum number of Directors required by clause 8.1, within 90 days of an Annual General Meeting, then a Director who has served the Maximum	To ensure we have rotation of leadership positions a maximum term has been set for each Director. With the exception that if the Guild is unable to fill the minimum number of positions required, a previous director can be reappointed without being required to have a 12 month break.

		Term may be reelected at a general meeting without being required to comply with the Director's Break; (d) This clause is intended to have retrospective operation – that is, the Maximum Term will apply to Directors currently appointed, commencing from the date they were appointed Directors.
9.2	Cheques, Bills, etc. All cheques promissory notes drafts bills of exchange and other negotiable instruments and receipts for money paid to the Company must be signed by two (2) of the four (4) signatories as determined by the Directors or must otherwise be signed drawn accepted endorsed or otherwise executed by the persons and in the same manner as the Directors determine	Cheques, Bills, Payments etc. All money paid by the Company (whether by cheque, electronic funds transfer or other means) must be approved by two signatories. The signatories may give their approval to the payment in writing by digital means (including by email).	To facilitate a more geographical distributed committee as well as new technologies.
10.4	Nominations Subject to Article 8.2, no person (not being a Director retiring by rotation) shall be eligible for election to the office as Director at any general meeting unless the person has been nominated in writing and has consented to their nomination and has notified the Company accordingly. Notice of each and every candidature shall be circulated to Members at least 21 days before the annual general meeting. Additional nominations may be accepted from the floor at a general meeting only if the minimum number of nominations received and circulated is below the number required by Article 8.1.	Nominations Subject to Article 8.2, no person (not being a Director retiring by rotation) shall be eligible for election to the office as Director at any general meeting unless the person has been nominated in writing and has consented to their nomination and has notified the Company accordingly. 18.1	Office The Office shall be located in each State and Territory for a maximum of a 3 year continuous period and subject to Article 18.2 shall rotate between the States and Territories in the following order with effect from the annual general meeting at the conclusion of the 3 year period: (a) New South Wales;  (b) Australian Capital Territory;  (c) Victoria;  (d) Tasmania;  (e) South Australia;  (f) Western Australia;  (g) Northern Territory; and  (h) Queensland.	Office The Office may be located in any Australian state or territory, to be determined at an annual general meeting. Pursuant to Article 8.2, the President and at least one other elected official (Vice President, Treasurer or secretary) must be from the same state or territory, with other Directorship positions drawn from the membership of any state or territory.	To facilitate the proposed geographically distributed committee the Office can be located in any state – the Office is just the formal address recorded for Australian Securities and Investment Commission (ASIC) so they can issue documents to the company. It can be a post office box and does not need to be located in any particular state (depending on the committee ASIC matters may sit with the treasurer or secretary)

18.2	Default If a State or Territory is unable or unwilling to assume the administration of the Office, the State or Territory next following in rotation shall have the opportunity to have the Office located within its jurisdiction.	Delete clause entirely.	A geographically distributed committee means this clause is no longer required.
	SCHEDULE OF AMENDMENTS 2021 Memorandum of Association – Australian Lace Guild .	Amendments to the Memorandum of Association dated 12 June 1985 as follows
Clause	Previous Clause	Current Clause	Why are we made the change
9	True accounts shall be kept of the sums of money received and expended by the Company and the matter in respect of which such receipt and expenditure takes place, and of the property, assets and liabilities of the Company and, subject to any reasonable restrictions as to time and manner of inspecting the same that may be imposed in accordance with the Articles of Association for the time being in force shall be open to the inspection of members. Once at least every year, the accounts of the Company shall be examined by one or more properly qualified Auditor or Auditors who shall report to the members in accordance with the provisions of the Companies (Victoria) Code.	True accounts shall be kept of the sums of money received and expended by the Company and the matter in respect of which such receipt and expenditure takes place, and of the property, assets and liabilities of the Company and, subject to any reasonable restrictions as to time and manner of inspecting the same that may be imposed in accordance with the Articles of Association for the time being in force shall be open to the inspection of members. The accounts shall be audited by a qualified auditor, or inspected for accuracy by a qualified accountant, who shall report to the members annually.	Provide flexibility to have the books inspected for accuracy rather than audited as an audit is no longer required under law and it is becoming increasingly difficult to find Accountants to conduct Audits due to liability issues.
