Conference tour – Wednesday 23 September 2026

The tour will depart from the Midland Junction Arts Centre, and travel to the Embroiderers' Guild of WA where we will be served morning tea, listen to a talk and view the extensive lace collection including Olwyn Scott's internationally prize winning lace. Lunch will be at the Rose and Crown Hotel Guildford, where you will be able to order from the menu and pay for your lunch on the day. After lunch we will visit the Swan Guildford Historical Society to tour the Old Guildford Court House and Gaol and view its large collection of artefacts, costumes, textiles, documents, tools and machinery. We will then visit the Margaret River Chocolate Company and Providore in the Swan Valley. At the end of the day we will return to the Midland Junction Arts Centre.

Please note, attendance at the conference may include photographs which include you, being published in Australian Lace or on the Guild Website.
